In honor of Black History Month, the League of Women Voters of Florida will host a virtual panel of speakers who will address aspects of Black voting in America.

The event will include a lively discussion that touches on historical perspectives, frank dialogues about the suppression of Black votes, impacts redistricting has on voting and ways to make meaningful change.

Attendees will be encouraged to share stories that highlight various experiences of voting while Black.

REGISTER NOW: https://bit.ly/3gRa6B7